

AUDLEY ANDREW DOWELL LEE was the second son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. Dowell Lee of Deytheur, Llansantffraid, Montgomeryshire, where he was born on 3 April 1895.

He entered Oundle (New House) in January 1908 and left in July 1914.

He went up to Lincoln College, Oxford, in October following. There he joined the O.T.C. and received a commission in the 9th Leicestershire Regiment in December 1914.

He went to France in October 1915 and was through the Somme battles in 1916. For good work in July of that year he was awarded the Military Cross, January 1917.

He was promoted Captain in October 1916.

He fell on October 1, 1917, while leading his company forward to repulse a heavy attack.

An officer wrote: "We feel his loss more than words can express, for he was beloved by all ranks."
