

GEOFFREY ATKINSON GAZE was the eldest son of the late W. G. Gaze of Whittlesea, Cambridgeshire, and was born at Norwich on July 19, 1881.

He entered Oundle (Laxton House) in September 1896, and left in July 1900. He was a school prefect.

From school he went on to St. John's College, Cambridge. Later he lived in London, where he was keenly interested in social work.

He had been for several years an officer in the Territorial Force, and at the time of his death, on September 28, 1916, he held the rank of Captain in the London Regiment.

*It is regretted that no photograph of Geoffrey Atkinson Gaze
is available*