

PHILIP CHABERT KIDD was the second son of Dr. W. Kidd, formerly of Otley, Yorkshire. He was born at Otley on July 17, 1892, and entered Oundle (New House) in September 1905, leaving in December 1906.

He held a commission in the Yorkshire Regiment and was reported missing on November 6, 1914. Nothing more was heard of him and his death was presumed to have occurred on that date.

*It is regretted that no photograph of Philip Chabert Kidd
is available.*
