

JOHN LAUGHTON was the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Laughton of Durban, Natal. He was born on September 6, 1891, and entered Oundle (Sidney House) in January 1906, leaving in April 1909.

He was a keen football player and played for Natal. At school he was a member of the XV.

Previous to the outbreak of war he had been at an Agricultural College.

He served in the South African Volunteer Force but was invalided out, and after a long illness died on July 19, 1918.
