

EDWIN WALTER SAUNDERS was the elder son of the late Walter C. Saunders and of Mrs. Saunders of Glassmoor House, Whittlesea. He was born at Whittlesea on April 16, 1893.

He came to Oundle in September 1906, entering Crosby House. He left in April 1910, and later took up farming.

He held a commission in the Territorial Force (Cambridgeshire Regiment) at the time when war was declared, and went to France with his regiment in February. He was through the fighting at St. Eloi, but fell at Hill 60, near Ypres, on May 5, 1915.

His Commanding Officer wrote: "The Regiment will miss him very much, for he had been doing splendid work the whole time we were at the front."

EDWIN WALTER SAUNDERS