

RUSSELL HARRY LOUIS SIMMONS was the third son of Mrs. Stone and stepson of Dr. J. M. Stone of Harwood, Maidenhead, Berkshire. He was born in London on February 27, 1895. He entered Oundle (Dryden House) in September 1909 and left in April 1913.

Given a commission in the 3rd battalion of the Royal Berkshire Regiment, he was attached to the 2nd battalion in France, and fell in the battle of Loos on September 25, 1915.

His Commanding Officer wrote: "He was a very keen soldier, liked by all; he was to have been given his commission in the 1st and 2nd battalion."
