

ERNEST WALTER WINTON (WEINTRAUD) was the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Weintraud of Belsize Avenue, Hampstead.

He was born on February 2, 1898, and entered Oundle (Grafton House) in September 1911, leaving in July 1914.

Leaving school he went to University College, London, for a year and to Clare College, Cambridge, in October 1915. He studied Economics and Socialism, and also devoted considerable time to music.

Leaving Cambridge after two terms, he passed through the R.M.A. Woolwich, being gazetted to the R.G.A. in June 1917. Going to France in November he was killed while taking up ammunition to the fighting line on December 15, 1917.
